

What's New with PAHMA

During 2021 PAHMA has had to navigate several changes that affected us to the core. We have had to say goodbye to members of our beloved family. From the retirement of W. Reid Howe, Treasurer of PAHMA and one of the founding members, the passing of Robert (Bob) Easley who had contributed many years not only to PAHMA but the Affordable Housing Industry as a whole, and the retirement of our beloved PAHMA Paula (or Peggy as some of us know her).

Reid, Bob, and Paula will be greatly missed and have left some very big shoes to fill. All these changes while we all have had to face and endure the COVID – 19 pandemic and navigate the world of virtual learning.

So, as you can imagine – there have been several changes with PAHMA for 2022. But let's talk about ...

Our New Mailing Address

Our New Administrator

Marianne McLaughlin

Marianne comes to us with an extensive business administration background and is a Licensed Realtor. She has vast experience working in a fast-paced environment with the ability to manage time, multitask, think quickly, and handle difficult or high-pressure situations independently or as part of a team. Her Real Estate background also makes her a perfect fit for PAHMA. We can't wait for you to meet and get to know her at our next event.

And Our New Venue – RLA Learning and Conference Center

RLA Learning and Conference Center is located at the Hub of I-79 and I-76. Close to many hotels for those who are traveling. It is conveniently set between two exits on I-79. You can locate it using the following 2 addresses:

Exit 78 – Rt. 228 Cranberry/Mars

850 Cranberry Woods Dr., Cranberry Twp., PA 16066 or

Exit 76 – Left Exit – Rt. 19 N

1170 Freeport Road, Mars, PA 16046

RLA has 28 Meeting rooms and can hold events for up to 400 people. They are also equipped with up-to-date technology to handle in person and virtual trainings.

AND The Food – Wow!

RLA has in house dining created by acclaimed Chef Mike Campbell, as well as their all-day snack and drink center. So don't miss our in person training this year at RLA Learning & Conference Center!

If unavailable to attend training in-person, virtual options may be available! (Details to follow)
